CORWIN IN BANK

CLOTHING MAN ACQUIRES INTEREST IN BANK AND TRUST CO.

WILL BE BIG BUSINESS

Combined Stockholders' Liability of $320,000, the Largest in Northwest Missouri Outside of St. Joseph.

The First National bank and S. G. Gilliam have just given out definite information of their plans in the conduct of the banking, farm loan and abstract business.

The First National bank organization continues as it is and will do the active banking business. This institution has a paid up capital and surplus of $120,000, and in addition thereto the stockholders are liable to the depositors, under the national banking laws, for an additional $100,000.

A trust company is being organized by these people, under which the farm loan and abstract business will be conducted and the trust company will also do a savings and time deposit banking business and will act as trustee, executor and administrator of estates. The name of the trust company will be Gilliam-Jackson Loan and Trust company. It will have a paid up capital of $60,000, with a subscribed capital of $100,000, making the stockholders' liability to those doing business with the trust company the full sum of $160,000.

It will thus be seen that the paid up capital and surplus of these allied institutions will be $180,000, and the stockholders' liability aggregates the large sum of $320,000, the largest of any financial institution in Northwest Missouri outside of St. Joseph.

Joseph Jackson, Sr., who is president of the First National bank, will be vice president of the loan and trust company.

S. G. Gilliam, who is vice president of the First National bank, will be president of the loan and trust company.

Joseph Jackson, Jr., who is cashier of the First National bank, will be secretary of the loan and trust company.

Charles C. Corwin, president of the Corwin-Morrin Clothing Co., has acquired a large interest in the First National bank and taken stock in the loan and trust company, and on September 1st will go actively into the business. He will be a vice president of the First National bank and treasurer of the loan and trust company.

These are the men who will hold official positions in and have active charge of these institutions. Their business ability and financial stability is too well known to require comment. A stronger combination of capital and business capability could not be brought together, and that these men and their institutions are certain to be leading factors in the future in the financial and business affairs of Nodaway county and Northwest Missouri all will admit.

The name Jackson is synonymous in Northwest Missouri with sound and successful banking. Joseph Jackson, Sr., has given more years to active banking in Nodaway county than any other person in it, and with most pronounced success. His son, Joseph Jackson, Jr., has for the past eight years been the cashier of the First National bank, and possesses all of the characteristics of his father, and is a most capable banker and business man.

The name Gilliam at once suggests a knowledge of the farm loan and abstract business second to none. He has been actively and continuously engaged in that business in Maryville since boyhood, and during all the years of its existence was president of the Gilliam, Bellows & Pierce Loan company, and a portion of the business formerly controlled by that company follows him into the new loan and trust company.

No one is better or more favorably known to our people than Charles Corwin. He has lived among us during his entire business career, and is one of our best and most successful business men of most excellent judgment. That he will readily assume a position of importance in and to his new business is a foregone conclusion.

These people have acquired the building adjoining the First National bank on the east, and it will be remodelled so that the room will be thrown in with the First National bank room, the business of the loan and trust company to be conducted in the east side of the enlarged room. Architects are now at work on the plans of remodeling and arranging the inside of the building.

These people are already prepared to and are doing an abstract business, having under contract with R. L. McDougal the use of his abstract books. They are also taking a photograph of the records, employing a special machine for that purpose and some eight or ten persons, so that the work will be quickly done. It is hard to conceive of a more complete title plant than this will make, as there can be nothing better or more accurate than an exact photo of the records, which these people will have in their vaults. To build up an abstract plant of this sort involves a large expense, but they say that they propose to be in a position to serve the people in this, as in all the other lines of business in which they are engaged, in a most thorough and satisfactory manner. In fact, the past business career of all of these men insures the very best service in all the departments of their business, as they have always stood for the best.

DECREASE IN BIRTHS.

As Compared to First Quarter of '12, This Year's First Quarter Shows 143 Births and 85 Deaths.

The bulletin of the Missouri state board of health for the first quarter of 1913 has just been issued. It shows that the number of births in Nodaway county during the months of January, February and March is two less than for the same period of 1912, and the number of deaths for the quarter is one less than in the first quarter of 1912. The figures for the 1913 period show 143 births and 85 deaths as against 145 births and 86 deaths for the first quarter of 1912.

The table also gives twenty-four causes of deaths and the number from each cause. The deaths in this county are from fifteen of these causes, and pneumonia and broncho-pneumonia stands highest on the list with 32 fatalities. The number of deaths from other causes is: Diseases of the heart and circulatory system, 7; tuberculosis of the lungs, 6; other diseases of the respiratory system, 5; cancer, 5; accidents, 5; diabetes, 3; diseases of the nervous system, 3; acute nephritis and Bright's disease, 3; other forms of tuberculosis, 2; whooping cough, 2; purpura, 2; hemorrhoids, 1 each; diarrhoea and enteritis, 2; other causes, 25.

THE HEATH FUNERAL SUNDAY.

Body of R. T. Heath Will Arrive Saturday from Mason City—Funeral Sunday Afternoon.

Mr. J. L. Ritze received a message Friday afternoon from his brother-in-law, E. W. Keck, of this city, who went to Mason City Thursday on account of the death of Robert T. Heath, saying that the body of Mr. Heath would be brought to Maryville Saturday morning on the 10:32 Wabash train.

The body will be taken to Mr. Ritze's home, 115 South Mulberry street, where the funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church. Burial in Miriam cemetery.

Becoming a Nuisance.

There are several good stories going the rounds now in which the Ford automobiles are the goats. The best up to going to press is as follows: A man on going home found it very difficult to find the electric light switch. In fact he stumbled over a baby carriage which was occupying a prominent place in the middle of the floor, and brought forth this: "Hic, you can run across those d— little Fords everywhere you go."

IT WILL REQUIRE YEARS TO COMPLETE SOIL SURVEY.

LACKING IN NITROGEN

Missouri Soil Also Short on Humus, Says Dean Mumford—Both Can Be Profitably Restored to Soil.

The soil survey of Nodaway county is being pushed this summer by the United States department of agriculture, co-operating with the state agricultural. E. S. Vannatta, representing the United States department, and E. W. Knoble, representing the state college, are doing the work.

At the present time soil surveys are being made in three other counties besides Nodaway. They are Perry, in Southeast Missouri; Greene, in Southwest Missouri; Ralls, in Northeast Missouri.

Thirty counties have already been surveyed and recorded. At the present rate it will require about fourteen years to complete the survey of all counties in the state. The kind of soil on each quarter section, what it is adapted for agriculturally, and its chemical and physical properties are recorded, so that, when the survey is finished it will be possible to tell, from the records alone, what kind of land is to be found on any given quarter section in Missouri.

The work began in 1903, with an appropriation of $3,000 from the state, and it now receives $15,000 for each biennial period. Experimental fields are being established on each of the types of soil, and there are now seven of these fields.

Dean F. B. Mumford of the state college, who has charge of the work, said: "Missouri soil, we find from the survey, lacks nitrogen and it also lacks the humus, or vegetable matter, both of which elements have been more or less exhausted by continuous cropping. The soils of many parts of Missouri also lack phosphorus. By using cowpans in crop rotations it is possible to restore nitrogen, and bone meal is required to add the phosphorus."

"The problem ahead of scientific agriculture in Missouri is how the farmer can restore the exhausted elements to the soil and make a profitable venture out of agriculture at the same time. The lack of these elements is not as serious a problem as it sounds, for they can be restored by good crop rotations and by correct handling of the farm."

"For example, on one South Missouri experimental field we doubled the wheat yield merely by crop rotations and by using bone meal. Exact records are kept of all expenses involved. It cost $2.31 an acre to double the yield, which doubled yield meant an increased return of $7.50 per acre."

"Soil experiments on the experimental field at Monroe City, in Northeast Missouri, have increased the yield of wheat by sixteen bushels per acre with a corresponding increase in the net profit. These results can be obtained on similar soil anywhere in the section by the use of the same methods. On the soil experimental field at Lamar, in Southwest Missouri, it has been shown that corn may be increased from 20 bushels to 45 bushels per acre. In the same locality wheat has been increased twelve bushels per acre. At Victoria, at one of the outlying fields, the clover yield was increased from one-half a ton per acre to two tons per acre, which meant an increased net profit of $6 per acre in that particular instance. In Christian county corn yields have been increased 12½ bushels per acre and clover one ton on each acre by the application of results obtained by the Missouri agricultural station on its Billings field."

"As to the soil survey in general, the preliminary survey of the whole state has been made. There has been a more special and careful survey of Northeast Missouri and the Ozark region."

"A thorough and detailed agricultural and soil survey of these counties has been made: Atchison, Audrain, Barton, Bates, Cape Girardeau, Cooper, Crawford, Cedar, DeKalb, Howell, Jackson, Marion, Pemiscott, Putnam, Saline, St. Charles, Scotland, Shelby, Sullivan and Webster."

A number of bulletins have been issued at Washington, and also by the Missouri experimental station.

Injured Man Recovering.

J. F. Gladson, who was badly injured about three weeks ago while assisting in the work of casing a well at the county infirmary, is recovering nicely. He is going to Tabor, Ia., on a visit and will be able to return to his employment here in a few days.

Returned to Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ben Turner of Sayre, Okla., who have been visiting in Maryville with Mr. Turner's mother, Mrs. G. W. Turner, and Mrs. Augustus Romassee, and at Hopkins with Mrs. W. A. Bokowitz left for their home Friday morning.

A HISTORIC COLLECTION.

Guns and Swords, the Relics of a Number of Families Here, in Window Display.

A historic collection of guns and swords, the relics of a number of families in Maryville, has been used by the Toggery Shop in its window display for the Fourth of July.

One of the most interesting of the relics is an old saber hanging in the center of the window. It belongs to Frank Shoemaker and was carried by his great-great-grandfather, General O'Hara, through the war of 1812. This General O'Hara was a direct descendant of a General O'Hara, a British officer of the revolution who handed the sword of Cornwallis to the American commander at the surrender of Yorktown.

Then the collection contains some old flintlocks which probably date back to revolutionary times. Three revolvers and pistols were loaned by Dr. Nash. One is a flintlock pistol from Germany, another one of the old "pepper box" revolvers, the first type of revolver manufactured in this country, and the double-barreled pistol is a relic of the Sepoy mutiny in India.

A number of old soldiers who have seen the window have taken a great interest in it and have offered to put relics of theirs in it, so that a number of other interesting weapons will be added to the collection.

FOR THE BABY CONTEST.

A Great Interest Is Being Taken—Babies Will Be "It" That Day.

The Mothers' Circle committee for the baby contest on July 4th could not get together Friday morning, so we cannot publish the score card to be used in judging until Saturday, as it is not yet completed.

These better babies contests are for the purpose of showing each baby's parents how to make their baby better. However high the babies of Nodaway county score this summer, they will score higher next summer, for the parents will find out just where their babies stand, their ideals of child life will be raised, and every condition that will be for their good will be sought.

If the better babies contest in Maryville on the Fourth turns out anything like it has in other places, the interest aroused in babies, and better ones, will overreach anything yet shown at Professor Oakeson's corn and domestic science contests by the boys and girls of the county.

Babies will be "it," and everything and everybody else may just as well take a back seat for the little monarchs of the American home.

'Twas New Moon

THE OLD MOON DON'T CUT SUCH STRANGE CAPERS.

RULES HALF THE LAND

And Over Moist and Crazy Brains, in High Spring—Tides at Midnight Reigns—Hudibras.

The universe is on its way to destruction. The first sign of it appeared Thursday when Jim Andy Ford discovered that the first quarter of the new moon was upside down. This was an unheard of phenomenon, and Mr. Ford at once became greatly alarmed. Immediately he began stopping every one he met on the street and asking them for an explanation. None of them had ever seen such a sight before and could account for it in no way.

Finally he took the matter to Joseph Jackson, Sr. Mr. Jackson went outside his bank and took a good long look at the bottom-side-up moon. He declared he had never seen or heard of anything like it before, and he thought it must be a sign of war.

Altogether Mr. Ford consulted with about fifty persons in regard to the matter. One of the last of these was R. S. Braniger. It was just even-time when Mr. Ford spoke to him about the trouble. He hadn't noticed it yet and immediately cast his eye heavenward to get a glimpse of this phenomenon. He could find no trace of a moon anywhere, but vowing he would not miss out on anything he went into encampment and kept a close vigil until after midnight trying to see "this wonderful moon." The moon did not rise, and Mr. Braniger had to give up in despair.

This morning a number of perturbed citizens, feeling worried over this condition of affairs, formed themselves into a committee to see Mayor Robey and have him issue a proclamation ordering the moon to right itself. Before they could carry out their project, however, G. B. Holmes came along and quieted their fears by explaining to them that the moon was in a perfectly normal condition. It was not the new moon upside down but the old moon right side up.

N. B.—Jim Andy Ford was really in earnest about this.

P. S.—Ask Mr. Braniger to explain the moon's phases to you and what time of day to look for it when it is in the last quarter.

MISS KATE MOSS IS SAFE.

Former Maryville Woman Who Is Now in Bulgaria Was Not Injured in the Earthquake There.

It will be pleasing news to Maryville friends of the safety of Miss Kate Moss in the recent earthquake in Bulgaria. The following is what this week's Central Christian Advocate of Kansas City says relative to it:

One day last week a cablegram published in the daily papers in Kansas City reported an earthquake in Bulgaria, where at Lovetch the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of our church has a school located. On June 19 a cablegram received at the headquarters of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, in New York City from Lovetch, gave the pleasing information that Miss Kate E. Moss of Kansas City, a teacher in the school, and Lovetch were safe. Miss Moss has been in Bulgaria for nearly the whole of the past year.

We are sure that all the friends and acquaintances of Miss Moss in Kansas City, in the state of Missouri, and elsewhere, and particularly all the members of the Des Moines branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, will be gratified to know that she was unharmed when called upon to face another great danger.

The war between Turkey and the allies, and now the earthquake, has made the past year, we are sure, for Miss Moss one of thrilling significance and has furnished her with experiences she little dreamed of when she left her friends and home of comfort in Kansas City. Miss Moss plans to attend the world Sunday school convention in Zurich, Switzerland, and will visit in Europe until September. She expects to sail from Glasgow, Scotland, September 13. But it is not at all certain just when she can leave Lovetch, on account of the unsettled conditions caused by the Balkan war.

Digs Up Human Bones.

TO CARRY TELEGRAPH WIRES.

Western Union Representative Here Today Confering About Taking Down Unightly Poles.

J. H. Bentley, a representative of the Western Union Telegraph company from the Kansas City office, was in Maryville today on business with Manager Todd of the telephone company. Mr. Bentley is trying to lease a right of way on the telephone company's poles to carry the telegraph lines from the Main street crossing of the Wabash railroad to the uptown office. If this is done the present telegraph line and poles on North Main street will be taken down, and the telephone company's one set of poles will serve for both lines.

The Commercial club some time ago asked the Western Union company if such an arrangement could not be made, as the large number of poles on North Main street were very unsightly and spoiled the looks of the street. If the deal is carried through the appearance of the street will be materially improved.

BIG CROPS PROMISED.

Carl Wray and John Cotter of Guilford Say Prospects Are Fine in That Section.

That big crops will be had this year, at least, in and around Guilford is what Carl Wray and John Cotter of Guilford said Thursday when they were in Maryville. The wheat crop was never better, there being a larger acreage than ever before and a much bigger yield promise. Frank Hughes, living near Guilford, has 275 acres in wheat, and it is estimated that it will average forty bushels to the acre. There are other fine crops of wheat that will average much more than last year.

"The corn crop is the best cultivated that it has been and there is a better stand," says Mr. Wray. Continuing, Mr. Wray said:

"Wheat and oats look fine, fine prospects for a bumper corn crop, hay was fair, and other crops equally as good. That is the report of the farmers around Guilford."

CLEARMONT TO CELEBRATE.

John Dawson and Ellis Cook to Be the Speakers—Music by College Springs Band.

Clearmont is to have a Fourth of July celebration and is intending to have a big time. The speakers of the day will be John Dawson and Ellis Cook of Maryville. There will be music by the College Springs band of eighteen pieces, a base ball game between the Clearmont team and the Black Wonders of St. Joseph, a grand display of fireworks in the evening, followed by a free motion picture show on the street. The celebration will be held in the Smith grove, one-fourth mile south of that town.

An automobile delegation of twenty-three cars visited a number of town on Thursday advertising their celebration. They were at Burlington Junction, Elmo, College Springs, Shambaugh, Braddyville, Hopkins, Pickering and Maryville.

Returned to Iowa.

Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Benson and Lucile Benson of Nowell, Ia., who have been visiting Mrs. Benson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lowry, and sister, Mrs. J. S. Clark, left Thursday in their car for their home.

Constable Tom Hazelwood and Ota Hazelwood of Barnard were city visitors Friday.

WU TING FANG.

Former Minister From China May Return Here On a Special Mission.

© by Fawcett.

A special delegate from the Chinese republic is to be sent to the United States to express the thanks of China to the American government for its recognition of the republican administration. It is considered probable that the choice for this mission will fall on Dr. Wu Ting Fang, formerly Chinese minister at Washington and ex-minister of foreign affairs in the revolutionary cabinet.

GO TO GETTYSBURG

NODAWAY CONTINGENT ALL GOING EXCEPT R. YARDIE.

EXPECT A GREAT TIME

Free Transportation Is Provided by the State—Abraham Walk of This City to Leave This Evening.

The last of the Nodaway county Gettysburg veterans will leave tonight for the celebration at Gettysburg, Pa., July 1-3, of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. Six in all received their transportation papers from the state, but only five are going, as Richard Yardie of Maryville took sick Thursday night and cannot make the trip. The other five are Abraham Walk of Maryville, Charles R. Eaton of Barnard, Harry P. Housen of Guilford, P. H. Walker of Clearmont, S. W. T. Black of Graham. Only those civil war veterans who fought in the battle of Gettysburg can go at the expense of the state, which accounts for the small number.

Richard Yardie, who cannot go, was a member of the First division, Twelfth corps, Thirtieth New Jersey regiment, Army of the Potomac, and fought with this army at Antietam, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. At Gettysburg he was stationed on Culp's Hill. During the rest of the war he was with the First Division, Twentieth corps, of Sherman's army.

Abraham Walk, who will leave Maryville tonight, was a private in Company C, Eleventh U. S. regulars, Second division, Fifth army corps. For a half day before the battle of Gettysburg he did skunkish duty in the wheat fields. During the second day's engagement he was shot through the arm, and the next day was sent to the hospital in Baltimore. This will be Mr. Walk's first trip to Gettysburg since the battle. On his way back from the celebration he will stop at Muncie, Ind., to visit relatives.

Charles R. Eaton of Barnard was a private in the Tenth regiment of Vermont. His company was in charge of the ammunition train behind Little Round Top. Mr. Eaton will also star on his trip tonight.

Harry P. Housen of Guilford left last Tuesday. Mr. Housen was less than seventeen years old when he enlisted with Company A of the Ninety-third Pennsylvania in 1861. He fought with that regiment until the latter part of '64. Because of his youthful appearance Mr. Housen made a good scout. He was on detached duty as a scout most of the time, and for good work done in Loudon's valley, became known as "The Little Scout of Loudon's Valley."

P. H. Walker of Clearmont left Friday morning for Gettysburg by way of Kansas City.

S. W. T. Black of Graham left May 28 for Roanoke, Va., to visit relatives. He will go to Gettysburg from Roanoke. Mr. Black was a sergeant in the confederate army. At the battle of Gettysburg he was in the famous Pickett's charge, the charge in which all but a handful of the 15,000 men who started up that hill were killed. Mr. Black was wounded in the charge, a rifle ball piercing his arm.

These men are looking forward to the celebration and reunion at Gettysburg next week as one of the treats of their lives. The events of that awful fight were so impressed on all who took part in it that they never forgot the scenes. The veterans are going back with a mental picture of how the field looked fifty years ago, and some of the men going from here said this morning that they are going to try to find the exact spot where they fought. They are looking forward to the renewal of acquaintance with old comrades.

The 253 Missouri veterans will leave St. Louis in a special train Saturday morning over the Clover Leaf route for Gettysburg. The transportation which has been given them by the state is good until July 16, and allows for stopovers. Many expect to take advantage of this and visit relatives and friends in the east, making the most of their holiday. May they have the best of times and return safe, gladdened by the look into the past, the days of their youth and strength—bitter days, yet days which they love so well.

Paul Basford, who has been a resident of Maryville all of his life, has bought out the cigar factory of W. J. Hutton. The factory will be known as the Basford Cigar company and will be located at the same place on the South side of the square.

Mr. Basford commenced working for a cigar factory when a boy, and his first work was with Nussbaum & Ream. He has been working at that trade for fourteen years. "EXCUSE WORSE THAN OFFENSE"

Minority Leader Attacks President and Attorney General.

MANN CHARGES HYPOCRISY.

Declares McNab Made Both "Beg Question and Eat Their Own Words." Hayden Named to Conduct Prosecution of Delayed Cases.

Washington, June 27.—In a vigorous speech in the house Representative Mann of Illinois, the Republican leader, attacked Attorney General McReynolds for postponing the white slave cases in San Francisco; criticized Commissioner General Cammelt of the immigration bureau, fearful of one of the defendants, and declared that District Attorney McNab had "made the president and attorney general not only to beg the question, but eat their words."

"Prightened men," Mr. Mann said, "never got away quicker than the president and the attorney general when this matter was brought up." Mr. Mann declared that the president and the attorney general had "permitted themselves to be used to prevent the enforcement of a great moral reform law" and insisted that the administration's excuse for the postponement was worse than the "offense." He declared the "action now taken is pure hypocrisy."

Hayden is Retained.

Attorney General McReynolds retained Thomas E. Hayden, former president of the San Francisco board of education, as one of the counsel for the government in the prosecution of the Cammelt-Diggs and the Western Fuel company cases. The attorney general has not definitely determined who else will be retained. It was announced, but is considering the names of several prominent California attorneys.

However, Matthew I. Sullivan is regarded as certain to be employed. Limited funds probably will prevent the department from retaining more than two special prosecutors. Mr. McReynolds had considered asking Francis J. Heney to take up the case. Mr. Sullivan prosecuted Ruef in San Francisco after Mr. Heney was shot. Mr. Hayden, who is in Washington, will leave for San Francisco shortly. He has been strongly endorsed as a successor to Mr. McNab.

TAFT ATTACKS REFORMERS

Delivers Address at Dedication of Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Cincinnati, June 27.—Taking as his subject "the relation of popular government to business" former President William H. Taft delivered the principal address at the dedication of the new building of the chamber of commerce of this city.

"The reformers apparently ignore the necessity for economy and efficiency in the administration of public affairs," said the former president. "These our so-called reformers are so radical that the fear of many is that the extreme will be reached which will destroy the permanency of popular government and also individual liberties."

In speaking of the initiative, referendum and recall, Mr. Taft said: "The devices which the people must perform to make new machinery of the initiative, the referendum and the recall effective are three times that necessary under the representative system."

Irrigated West Opens Eyes of Brazilian. Ogden, Utah, June 27.—Making the last lap of his swing around the country, Dr. Lauro Muller, Brazilian minister of foreign affairs, and party arrived in Ogden for a brief stop. Amazed almost beyond expression by the wonderful agricultural development of the United States, Dr. Muller said that he has acquired sufficient knowledge concerning intensive agriculture to prove of lasting benefit to his own people. The advancement of irrigation has proved of intense interest to the distinguished visitor.

Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Pirates Win Another.

In a one-sided game Thursday afternoon, in the Normal base ball league, the Pirates defeated the lowly Giants. Capt. "Shylock" Wilson pitched a great game for his buccannery and was never in danger all during the entire game. Criss was hit hard in five innings, but his team did not give him much support.

This game puts the Pirates tied with the Cubs for first place and gives the Giants a stronger hold on the cellar door.

Batteries—Pirates, Wilson and Wilson; Giants, Criss and Wogan.
Score—Pirates 7, Cubs 1.

TRIED TO SELL GOLD BRICK TO WALL STREET

Lobby Committee Hears of Offer to Protect Interests.

Washington, June 27.—The story of an effort to sell a gold brick to Wall street and how it was foiled was told in part to the senate "lobby" investigating committee at one of the most sensational proceedings sessions it has held in its stormy career. It was a tale of how influence was to be exerted in the seats of mighty in Washington to prevent unfavorable investigation into the doings of the street and how lawsuits that the financial interests in New York would not like would be prevented and how the gold brick seller was generally to protect the interests of the clients he sought in the political game at the capital. Representative A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, one of the prominent Democrats in the house, mentioned for secretary of war in the pre-inauguration days, and a close friend of the president, told the story and Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, and Representative J. R. Jordan of New York gave the committee some light on its details.

According to Mr. Palmer, Lewis Cass Ledyard, another New York attorney, was the man who was largely instrumental in foiling the plot. The name of the man who proposed to do all these things in Washington was not given to the committee, although Mr. Palmer acknowledged that he had strong suspicions of his identity. Mr. Palmer told the committee that the representations of influences in Washington had gone so far as to bring in the names of the speaker, of the majority leader in the house and of at least two other prominent members. He said that after Mr. Ledyard had engaged in many telephone conversations with the man who had all these goods for sale in Washington he had met Edward Lauterbach, a New York attorney, under the supposition that Lauterbach was representing the user of the telephone. Lauterbach denied that he had tried to secure employment with big interests in New York on the strength of supposed power in the capital.

WANT 10,000 INCHES SKIN

That Amount of Cuticle Needed to Save Lives of Blast Victims.

Buffalo, June 27.—Ten thousand square inches of skin must be given for grafting purposes to save the lives of those injured in the Husted elevator explosion, according to conservative estimates of physicians. The services of 200 volunteers will be required to meet this demand. A public appeal will be made as soon as the exact conditions are known.

No more bodies were recovered from the ruins and firemen were still pouring water on the wreckage.

Of the seventy-two injured, forty-one are in hospitals and the remainder at their homes. Four of the four teen men reported as unaccounted for were located. All were injured and were being taken care of by friends. Hospital physicians say that of the forty-one victims in their care, fourteen are suffering from third degree burns, always fatal unless new cuticle is successfully grafted on the burned parts. Nearly every sufferer is terribly burned on the arms. On several the flesh is burned to a crisp practically from head to foot.

Heat Overcomes Player. St. Paul, June 27.—Second baseman Williams of the Kansas City American association team was overcome by heat in the second inning of the game with St. Paul. He was removed unconscious to a local hospital.

Blue Grass Seed Crop Light.

The blue grass seed crop in the vicinity of Burlington Junction is light this year compared with the heavy crop last season. C. D. Caldwell, who ran several seeders last year, is not stripping any this year on account of the light growth, and reports are coming from other parts of the county that the harvest is light and the work is not proving profitable. J. E. and R. L. Bilby have twenty seeders stripping grass on their ranches west of Quitman.
